Looking back ... As I watch this book near its completion, it becomes more and more difficult to put into words what it has been like to have been the Managing Editor of the 1985 Salesian. More than anything else, it has been a lot of work; more work than I ever imagined. But this work has had a purpose, that of producing a concrete something which will be a document of our senior year.

When we began this project, I felt comfortable with it. Kevin Winn and I had been to a publishing workshop, and we both felt as if we had learned enough to make the job easier than it might otherwise have been. True, we had learned a lot of technical knowledge, but all that knowledge didn't produce a single page of copy, nor did it provide us with a single photograph. None of what we learned prepared us for the pressure of a 50 page deadline right before Christmas; nor had we learned how to squeeze onto one page as much as we would like. That was the hardest part of all - making the editorial decisions which affect every page of this book.

In a more abstract way, I learned that the impossible thing is to recreate the actual school year with only a finite amount of pictures and space. Our lives and experiences here have been much more than words and pictures, but these pages are one-dimensional, and that's the difficulty. Good photography, exciting designs, well-written copy, a good cover ... none of these things can really capture the essence of Mt. de Sales. These pages don't contain the anticipation of the new school year and the excitement of another football season. They don't recall the electricity in our gym during a pressure-packed basketball game, the spirit of each pep rally, the unity in our assemblies, the relief we all felt when we finished our term papers, the seemingly endless walk to Hamlet Hall, the stinging cold winds of January. Nowhere in these pages will I find the empty sound of my footsteps as I left campus late in the afternoons. None of these things are here. All we can give you is the pictures and the words, and it's up to you to supply the rest of the details which will make this book a rich reminder of 1984-1985.

Maybe you've never felt it, or maybe you've felt it and never really wondered about it. Still, there is an atmosphere on this campus which all of us recognize, and which will seem so strange when it's gone. When you open this book years from now, I hope that you can remember the little things that have made our years here a special time - to learn, to laugh, to love, to cherish each other. If there is a time for every season, there will come a time in the future for looking back, and I hope this book will be a help.

I owe thanks to many people, for I did not do this complicated job alone.

To Chris Kinnas and our Business Staff, my thanks for a job supremely well-done. I didn't know that tedium and long hours could be so much fun.

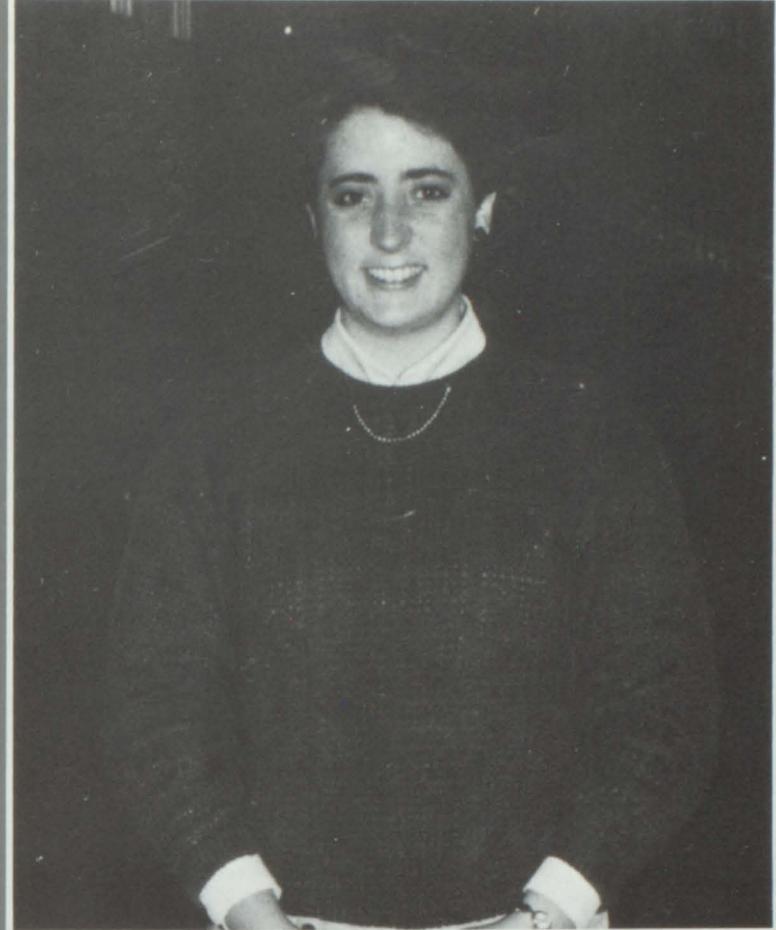

To our Associate Editors, Michael Garvin and Kevin Winn, my sincere thanks. You never ran out of ideas or energy. You were always good-natured, patient, and witty, and I can honestly say that this job would have been a lot harder without your continuous support.

To our Editorial Writers, Laura Shaker and Chris Wells, and to our Production Staff and Section Editors - you know how much you contributed to this book. It is as much yours as anyone else's.

To our Publisher, Mr. Kevin Dockrell, I thank you for your confidence in me, and your active help in making this book a reality.

And to you who will read and keep this book, may you get from it merely a fraction of what was put into it. If it means anything at all to you, today and in the future, all the work will have been worth it.

Enjoy!

IT'S GREAT TO BE A CAVALIER!

To be part of the Mt. de Sales student body is to experience a certain something, not easily defined, but a definite knowledge that we are all part of something very special.

It begins with tradition. MDS has produced more than its share of championship teams over the years, but the Cavalier spirit goes deeper than victories and region titles; it reaches into the heart, where the values of competition, honest effort, and valiant sportsmanship are formed. It is characterized by a positive attitude which does not easily accept defeat.

It is demonstrated when we applaud our classmates for their achievements, when we turn out in the parking lot to send our softball team off to the state playoffs, and when we listen in silence when one of our own speaks of his love for MDS and its people.

Friends and Neighbors

Every year, we have visitors who come to speak to us, talk with us, instruct us, and just share a day or two.

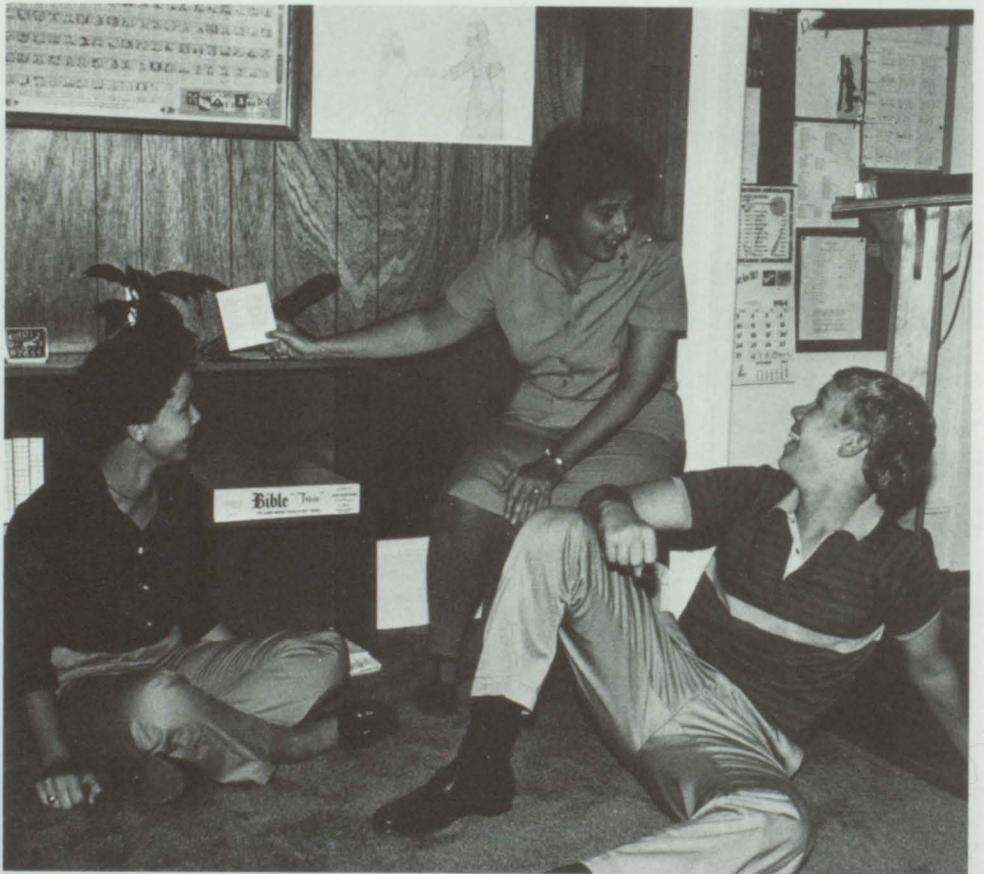

Sometimes we forget who they are and why they were here. On these two pages are pictured those who were our friends and neighbors in 1984-1985.

At the beginning of the Advent season, we attended an assembly which helped increase our awareness of the "holy days" which awaited us. On hand to speak were Reverend Roy Dial, pastor of Cross Keys United Methodist Church, Mrs. Carolyn Garvin, who chairs the MDS Religion Department, Father John Kenneally, pastor of Holy Spirit Catholic Church, and Rabbi Ronald Goldstein of Temple Beth Israel.

Brendan Martin, '84, spent two days working in the Guidance Office in January. Brendan is currently in his freshman year at Texas A & M.

Father Mike Rovere celebrated Mass on All Saints Day. It was his first Mass at MDS after being ordained to the priesthood in September.

The Reagan Landslide

On November 6, 1984, the Mt. de Sales Student Body voted to re-elect President Ronald Reagan. Students chose Reagan by a margin of almost 2 to 1, and in the modified Electoral College, Mr. Reagan scored a clean sweep, defeating Democrat Walter Mondale 538 - 0.

Development - A Lifeline to the Future

Since 1979, when the MDS Development Program was begun, the Board of Trustees has approved the purchase of several pieces of property adjacent to our campus. The purpose of these acquisitions is to provide future generations of MDS students with enough space and facilities to continue our tradition of excellence.

Since the program was begun, pieces of property have been purchased, two homes have been converted to classrooms, and our campus has been expanded and beautified to better meet the needs of the MDS community.

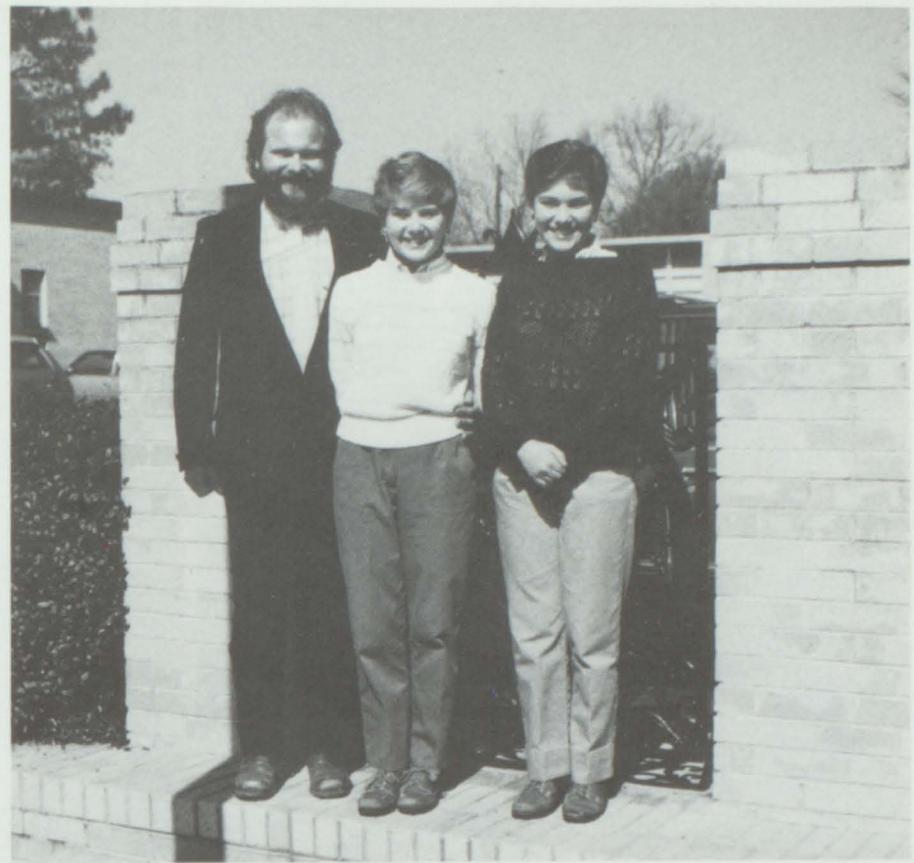

When Father John Cuddy (at right) comes to teach our seniors, he visits them in their own classroom building, Hamlet Hall. The building was purchased in September, 1983. Interior renovation and exterior beautification were performed during the summer of '84.

Rose Place was purchased in September, 1980 and first dedicated to classroom use in August, 1983. Its small classrooms and quiet atmosphere make it perfect for religion classes; in fact, all of our sophomore religion students, and some of our juniors, have studied in Rose Place during the last two years. Pictured here in the "prayer room" are, left to right: Kim McDaniel, Mary Catherine Johnson, Alyse Eichin, and Cooper Cook.

Mount de Sales continues to offer a superior education to the Catholic community of Macon and its environs, but if de Sales is to be able to do so into the future, her alumni, alumnae, and friends have a special role to play in securing the financial future of this important educational resource.

The Annual Giving Campaign offers the means to accomplish these ends. If every de Sales graduate, and every friend of our school will participate by becoming an Annual Giver, our future will be secure for the next hundred years.

Won't you join the

Dear Seniors:

Looking back ... to the day when 38 of you entered Mt. de Sales in the 8th grade, I remember your sense of anticipation, of wonderment, of fear, and of joy. Since the prevailing spirit of a high school class is evident in its 8th graders, I look to them as indicators of things to come. Thus, I knew from their entrance in August, 1980, that we had a class more alive - the Class of '85. You elected Michael Garvin, John Griffin, and Cathy Bomberger to lead you that year and your class was known for strong academics and enthusiasm for your school as you out-yelled that big 9th grade ahead of you.

Then came your 9th grade. You doubled in size and doubled in spirit. Never do I remember so much green evident on campus. (Maybe that's why we were inspired to change the external trim of our school from turquoise blue to forest green!) Your enthusiasm was contagious! I remember that this was the year of the Sesquicentennial celebration of the Sisters of Mercy. Mayor Israel proclaimed Mercy Day in Macon, September 24, 1981, in tribute to the years of dedication and caring that have characterized Mercy's presence here. The Heritage Room was opened containing photographs, narratives, and memorabilia telling the story of our first 100 years at MDS. Remember, we fielded our first soccer team this year. (They won their only game.) You elected Reggie Howard, Gwen Walton, Chris Edwards and Michael Garvin to lead your freshman class - and lead they did in an outstanding corporate effort. Many firsts were yours: first in the publications drive, first in Homecoming (with your cast of hundreds), first in pep rally spirit, first on fun night, first in the hearts of your teachers, and first to one another. I remember thinking: "Won't it be a good year when these are our senior leaders?"

Remember your sophomore year? The year of the wise ones? Under the leadership of Michael Taylor, Reggie Howard, Kelly Clark, and Patrick Nuttal you had a memorable year. You still dominated the honor rolls with a larger percentage of sophomores on honors than any other class in the school. Father Bede retired and Mr. Chester Pierce became financial manager. Mr. Ray left classroom instruction and became full time guidance counselor. Drama produced Evita and Queens of France as two sophomores starred. DeSales sponsored its first Debate Team and seven of your classmates were important to its success in winning the region championship. My, we were proud, as was Sr. Grace Marie. Your service to the school was varied and extensive, including: 9 library assistants, 1 liturgical guitarist, 4 cheerleaders, 6 track runners, 4 tennis players (including 4-time state champion Laura Nelson), 2 golfers (including Low Medalist Lee Gerdes), 12 football players (7 varsity, 5 B-Team), 5 baseball players (1 varsity, 4 B-Team), 16 basketballers (2 girls, 14 boys), and the top fundraiser for Publications - Kevin Winn. In this 1982-83 school year, we thrilled with Princess Di and Prince Charles in the birth of Prince William, we grieved at the Tylenol tragedy, we viewed the final episode of *M*A*S*H*, we boosted Herschel for the Heisman, and we watched as E.T. surpassed Star Wars at the box office. The year of wisdom!

As you grew in wisdom, age and grace, your junior year dawned. Uppermost in your minds, I am sure, was the junior-senior prom and your major responsibility in executing this annual social highlight. You chose Reggie, Chris Edwards, Kelly and Michael Taylor to set your direction. This year, Mary Beth Carpenter was the top fundraiser for Publications, and we won region championships in softball, football, boys' and girls' basketball, baseball, and drama (The Murder of Lidice). Our first competitive math team was strengthened by six juniors. You remember that two young Sisters of Mercy joined our faculty (one, Sister Pat, is still with us) and Mrs. Manning became important to you as school secretary. I remember your faces when you first viewed the new trapezoid sodded, planted, and beautiful. Rose Place became a classroom, computers abounded, and we went western at homecoming with the theme, "Homecoming on the Range." All of this activity climaxed in the beauty of "New York, New York"; thanks to you, a splendid time was had by all. The year ended in late May when, at Mass on Moving-Up Day, your dream came true as you assumed the leadership of the school - our seniors. Appropriately, the theme of that Mass was "Growing Together for All to See." I said to you that day, and I repeat it to you today, "I have looked forward to the day when you would be our seniors for I have watched you grow to maturity in academics, in spiritual vision, and in dynamic school spirit."

Thus dawned your senior year, this year, one characterized by the smoothest beginning in recent times. With you as role models, with an expanded campus beautifully landscaped and an impressive wrought iron gate joining our two open, seated areas, with Hamlet Hall just for seniors, with Rose Place redecorated and utilized on a full time basis, with an expanded curriculum, we began this good year. I knew you liked the new open spaces on campus when I overheard one of you ask as you headed toward the gym for an assembly, "Can we cut through the gate?" Our three new faculty members, Sister Regina, Miss Carter, and Mr. Tony Pierce, were not completely new to us for they had been with us on a part-time basis last year, so they blended quickly with our dedicated, returning staff. With this kind of leadership, faculty and seniors, it was inevitable that 1984-1985 be extraordinary.

Extraordinary - was Mercy Day, a day of joy and gratitude expressed by students to the Sisters of Mercy whom you honored in such nice ways: an inspiring Mass, words of petition to God for us, words of love spoken to each of us throughout the day; a pervading happiness umbreliaed the campus that day. I'll always remember it - your last Mercy Day with us.

Extraordinary - Homecoming! Your slumber party skit presenting the candidates for queen was hilarious and well performed by 10 senior "hams". The school tingled with excitement in competitions and in anticipation of the crowning of Queen Holly.

Extraordinary - the Science Team, composed of four of your classmates and one junior, travelled to Americus and brought home the 1st place trophy, triumphing over all 30 schools present there.

Extraordinary - Election Week. Remember the rally as Carl Joiner, Reggie Howard and Chris Kinnas challenged us all to consider the issues and to go to the polls. Was it the issues or the TV camera that charged us most? What spirit!

Extraordinary - the last home football game. Remember the scoreboard, 31-0, MDS over Flint River. Remember the wonderful Sacred Heart School band - that big sound - with a halftime routine that paid double honor to our region champion senior softball and football players and their parents? Remember the card and towel routines of our new Pep Club, that Pep Club eminently successful because of your leadership and your membership? I will always be grateful to you and Mrs. Timms for this contribution to MDS.

Extraordinary - the Thanksgiving Liturgy - so happy, so reverent. Remember? Father Cuddy said, "You were truly inspiring."

Extraordinary - the chosen editor of this yearbook, Chandler Park, who invited me to reminisce with you. Let us look back fondly, but only briefly, for we now turn our eyes to tomorrow. Life holds unique challenges and blessings for you. You are already blessed with intelligence and a good Catholic education; you are blessed with goodness and a generosity of grace; you are blessed with good health and an abundance of the fruits of the earth; you are blessed with personality and good friends; you are blessed with parents and teachers who love and support you as you face your tomorrows. We will always remember you affectionately.

Yes, it was a VERY good year, this year with each of you as our seniors.

Sincerely and gratefully,

Sister Fidelis

Looking back ... Our lives have changed in so many ways. We have grown physically, intellectually, emotionally, and spiritually. As our years at MDS come to an end, perhaps for a moment we can recall the vast amounts of knowledge and experience which we have learned. If we were to ask ourselves, "What have I learned; what have I gained in my years here," the answer would be found in the hearts and minds of those dedicated and caring people who have taught us. It would be found in the personal sacrifices made by each, who so often go unthanked.

It would be found in the words of the novelist Pat Conroy, who wrote of his own teachers in the best-selling novel, The Lords of Discipline:

"Ordinary teachers do not touch me; the great ones never leave me. They ride with me during all my days, and I pass on to others what they have imparted to me. I exchange their handy gifts with strangers on trains, and I pretend that the gifts are mine . . . Great teachers encourage me to steal from them, and when I do, I know that they delight in my larceny."

Teachers, then, are gift-givers, and one of their gifts is knowledge. They have shown us the ancient myths of Greece, the tragedies of Shakespeare, the short stories of Poe and Twain. They have made us aware of the great analytical thinkers - Pythagorus, Descartes, Euclid - and they have shown us the simple beauty of circles, sizes and shapes. In their classes, we have glimpsed cells, molecules and atoms; we have come to know the great thinkers: Lincoln, Plato, Aquinas, and Darwin; Newton, Galileo, Copernicus, and Christ.

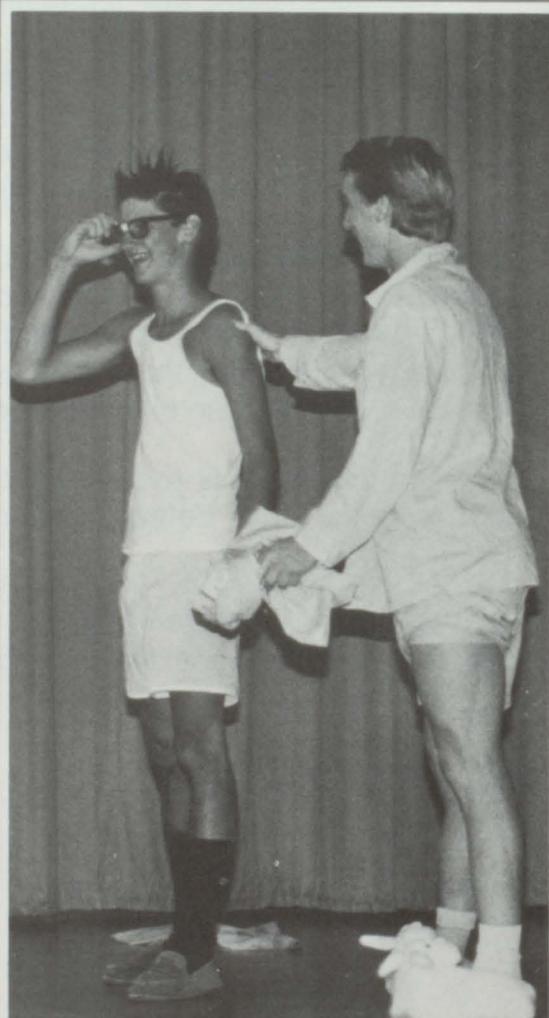

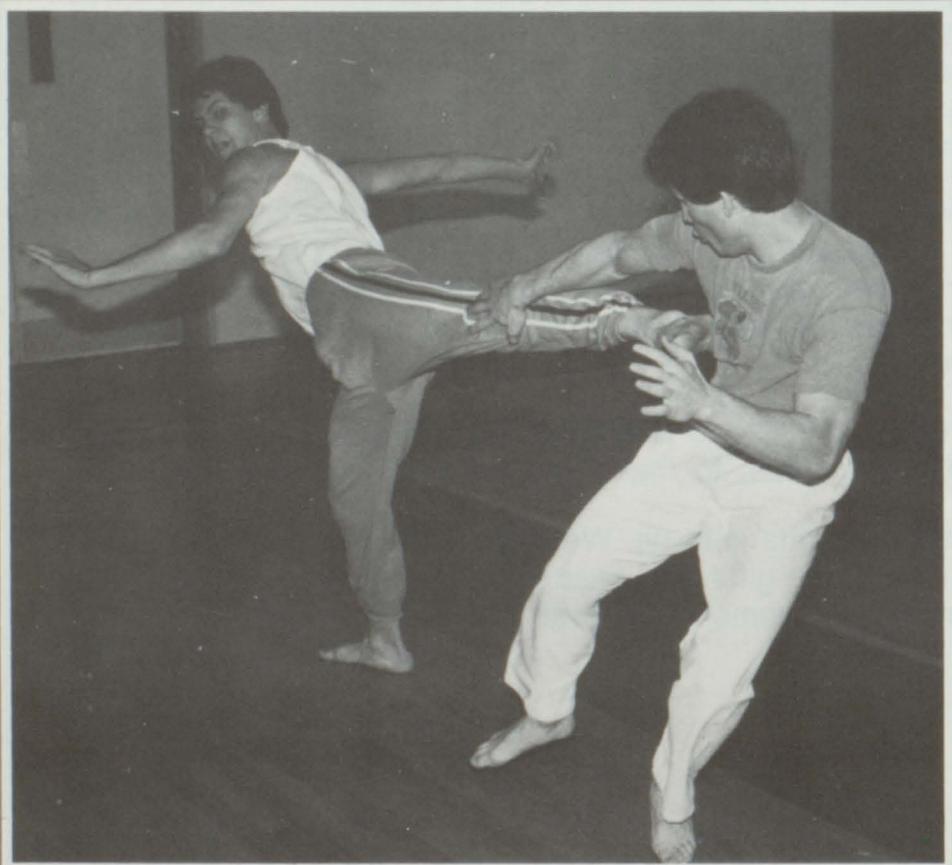

We've received more from our teachers than just knowledge. We have learned the value of sacrifice. We have learned to accept responsibility for ourselves, our school, our work and the people we love. We have learned to respect others despite the differences which exist between us; we have learned that our way isn't the only way. We have learned our own set of values; we have formed our own code of morality.

And yet, there is even more that we've learned: to take pride and to rejoice in our victories, and to accept our defeats with dignity and grace, to make and keep friends, to love.

As we leave MDS, we take these many gifts with us. We'll show them off, and take pride in them. And if we are wise, we will take these gifts and pass them on to others. In doing so, we will commemorate the unselfish men and women who first gave them to us.

Is Ramona studying hard, or hardly studying?

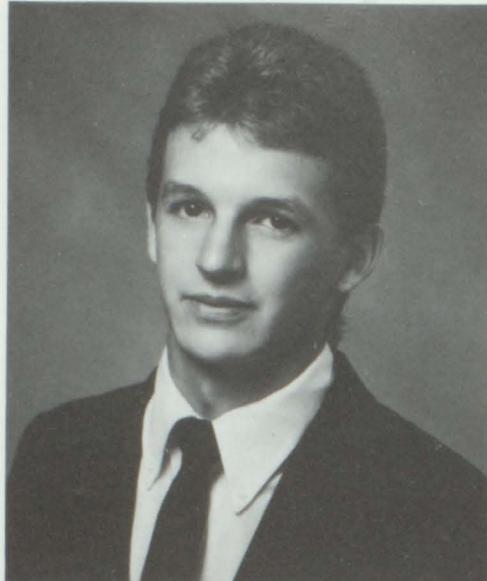

We admire many different men and women as our heroes and heroines. Most frequently mentioned by members of the Senior Class were their parents, and Jesus Christ. Two prominent Americans from the 1960's were also mentioned - President John F. Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Among the other persons listed were Alan Alda, Ghandi, Senator San Nunn, St. Stephen, Princess Diana, and Baby Fae.

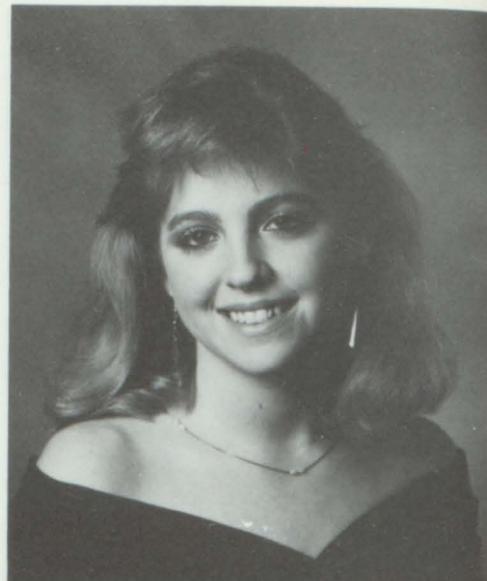

William Martin Felton II

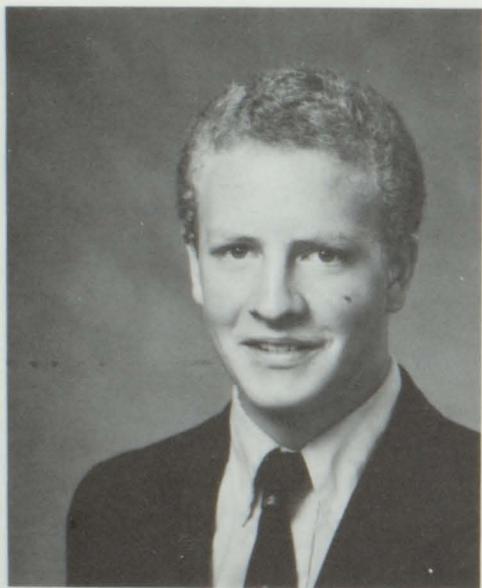

Stephen Gregg Fitzgibbons

Brian Cole Frankum

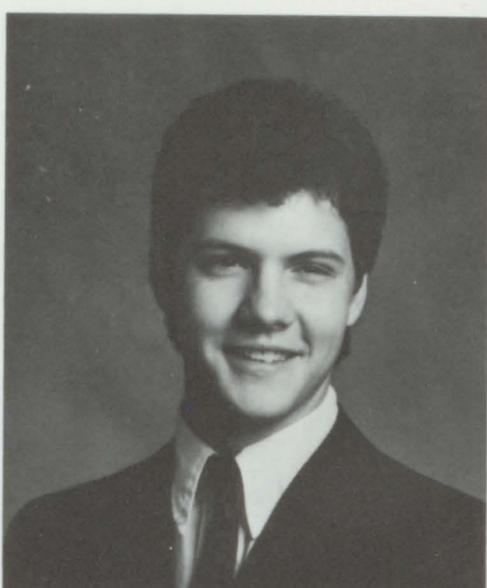

Mitzi Michelle Freville

Michael Joseph Garvin II

Prince is our overwhelming choice for favorite recording artist; he received 5 times more votes than any other performer. Also frequently named were Bruce Springsteen, The Cars, ZZ Top, Michael Jackson, and Hank Williams, Jr.

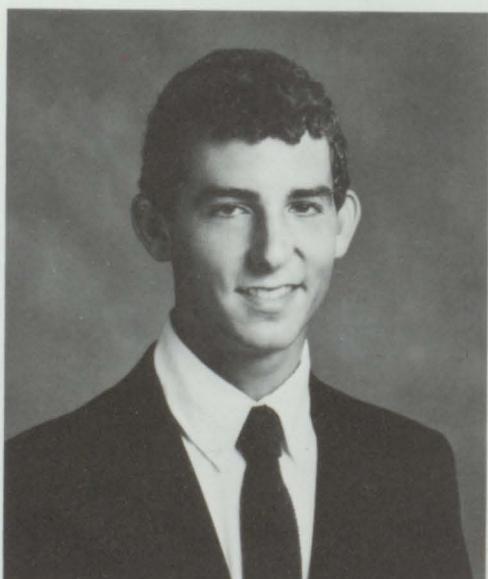

We are a varied class, though; also receiving votes were Cindi Lauper, Van Halen, Lionel Richie, The Police, Bob Seger, The Thompson Twins, Billy Joel and The Surf Punks.

We love to go to the movies, and our favorites indicate that we like lots of different kinds of films.

Our overall favorite was The Terminator, followed closely by Prince's Purple Rain. Also frequently mentioned were Fast Times at Ridgemont High, Risky Business, and Animal House, which was prominently featured in our Homecoming skit.

When asked about our favorite school subjects, we mirrored the national consensus, listing Calculus as our favorite single course. Almost as many of us liked Psychology, with Biology running a close third. After those three, our other favorites include Marriage, Computer Math, P.E., Physics, French and Spanish, English, Foreign Relations, and Typing.

Like most people, we watch a lot of television, and we enjoy *M*A*S*H* more than any other single program.

Among the more current programs, we favor Scott Baio on Charles in Charge, followed closely by Cheers, Family Ties, the prime-time soap opera Dynasty, and the afternoon soap, The Guiding Light.

Like most other people, we have very strong opinions about things we don't like to do.

Among them: cleaning up our rooms (some of us even dislike making our beds), washing dishes, cutting the grass, caring for pets, and taking out the trash.

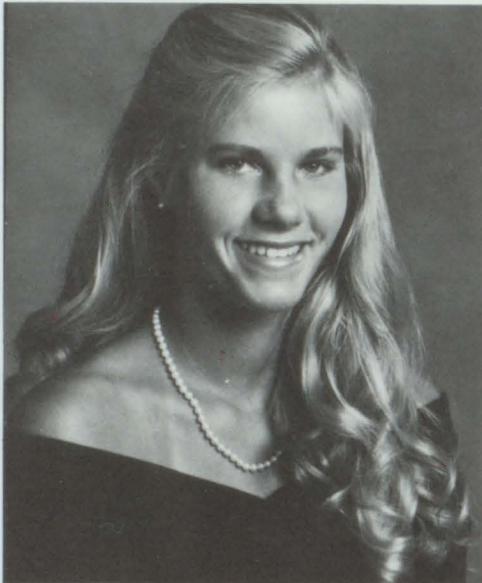

Every one knows that we don't always give ourselves to these bothersome but necessary tasks. Still, one of our classmates said that his least favorite chore was even getting out of bed!

Our post-graduation plans have consumed a lot of our time and thought over the past several years, and when polled, the Class of '85 indicated strong preferences for their career plans.

More of our classmates plan a career in medicine than in any other single field. The other professions which were frequently mentioned included business, computer science, education, engineering, and law.

Hollywood may have the Marx Brothers, but only MDS has the Marx Sisters!

We love our leisure time, and our poll drew more different responses to this question than any other.

It seems that we would rather listen to music than any other single kind of leisure activity. We also enjoy hunting and fishing, "going off" with friends, eating (of course), reading, talking on the phone and watching TV.

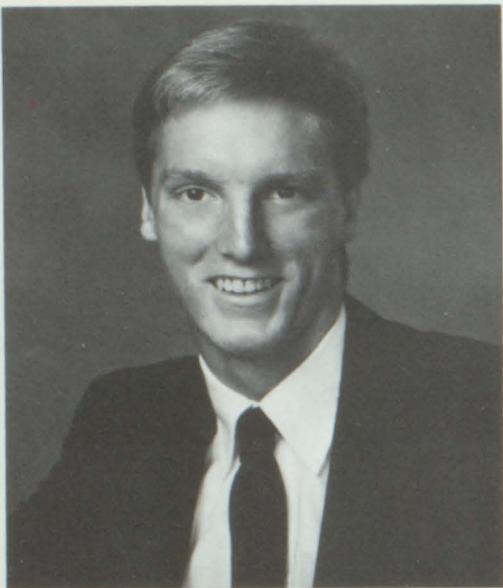

When we get tired from all this, we love to sleep!

Our personal concerns run the gamut from those things important to our immediate futures, to those other things which are important in a more general way.

Our most frequently mentioned concern is our upcoming college experience. Beyond that, many of us are concerned with having "successful" lives, making and keeping friends, and living with our growing awareness of war and peace.

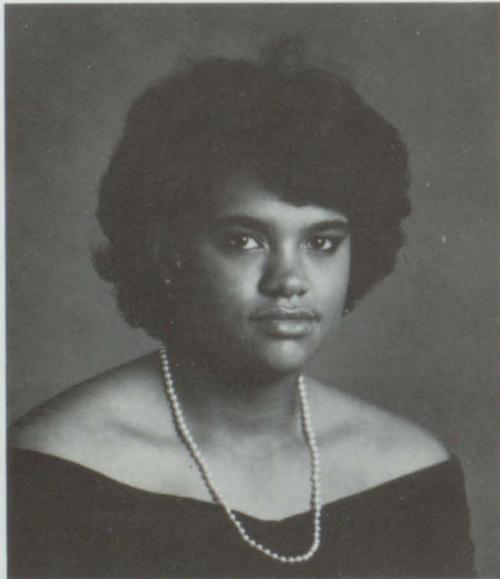

Like most every other class, we are also concerned with our own financial success.

MDS Goes Hollywood!

The theme for Homecoming '84 was appropriate; since we watch so many movies, it was only natural that MDS went Hollywood.

The festivities began on Monday, when our senior "hams" introduced the Queen candidates to the student body. Class banners, unfurled on Tuesday, admonished all interested parties that playing football with MDS was Risky Business.

The highlight of the school week was Wednesday, when the annual dress-up competition revealed some truly original creations. Characters from *M*A*S*H* were a particular favorite, while Robert Sanders continued his search for meaningful weight loss!

Salesian

The cover was conceived and designed by Mr. Dockrell, and originally drawn by Chandler Park. The cover was printed using a dual-element laser, on 80 point mortar-board. This cover process includes a special liquid plastic coating to prevent scratches and discoloration.

Pages are bound into 16-page signatures, and are smyth-sewn, rounded and backed. The page material is 80 pound enamel, and the printing employs an ink-jet process for sharpness and clarity.

The typeface used throughout is a sans serif style, Helvetica, and all four fonts are used: regular, italics, boldface, and bold italics. Type sizes range from 6-point (used in panel captions) to 72-point (on the title and division pages).

The Salesian was printed and assembled by Walsworth Publishing Company, located in Marceline, Missouri.

"Who said that counting all this money was going to be tedious?"

Literary Events

MDS continued its tradition of successful literary competition in 1984-85.

The Debate Team returned to active competition and finished third in an extremely close region tournament in January.

Individually, several dozen MDS students competed in school-wide competition in spring, '84. In spoken, written and musical competition, they distinguished themselves as true Cavaliers.

These seven students were alternates at Region competition (front to rear): Jennifer Koski (Extemperaneous Speaking), Julie Nawotka (Oral Interpretation), Kelly Hamlin (Essay), Alan Taylor (Extemperaneous Speaking), Grace Palazzolo (Piano), Chris Rouse (Spelling), and Michael Dunaway (Oral Interpretation)

National Honor Society

Membership in National Honor Society is an honor extended to those students who display the virtues of Character, Scholarship, Leadership and Service. Each year, Mt. de Sales honors those few students who have consistently demonstrated these values, and who have distinguished themselves among their classmates.

First chartered by the National Honor Society in 1952, Our Lady of Mercy chapter has inducted only those relative few who have consistently earned the highest honors. As such, membership in NHS is a highly valued accomplishment.

The goats, trying to summon the courage to cross the bridge: Steve Lott (left) and Best Actor Chris Wells. (Kevin Sells, who portrayed the third goat, is not pictured).

For the One-Act Play in Region Literary Competition this year, the MDS Players chose The Bridge, a powerful and compelling allegory about courage, choices and survival.

The story centers on the efforts of three goats to cross a bridge to more fertile grazing pastures. The bridge guarded by three trolls, who demand worship before they will allow the three goats to pass.

Intramurals

In 1983 the accrediting committee which certifies Mount de Sales every ten years indicated that the school needed an intramural program open to all students. It was felt that this kind of program would benefit those students who enjoy athletics but who do not compete in varsity or B-team sports.

Our intramural program began this year, with touch football for boys and volleyball for girls. Competing in two divisions, one for 8th and 9th graders, and the other for sophomores, juniors and seniors, several dozen students participated.

Intramurals were a great success!

Cavaliers Come Through - Region Champs

Our offensive line was small, but productive.

Michael Taylor, shown here carrying against Riverview, was chosen Back of the Year by the Macon Telegraph and News.

An early season newspaper article said that "Mt. DeFense has eroded." This play suggests otherwise.

1984 Region Champions - Overall Record, 7 - 5.

The Cavaliers suffered three consecutive losses with several starters unable to play, among them Reggie Howard (third from right), Chris Edwards (second from right), and John Griffin (far right).

Looking back . . . When we began summer practice last August, there was an absence of the usual spirit and confidence which accompanies MDS football. Through dedicated preparation, excellent coaching, and the team's own self-confidence, we surprised our school, the city and state with a season-opening 19-6 victory over top-ranked First Presbyterian.

The remainder of the season was very trying. We suffered many key injuries but we fought hard every week. It would have been easy to get down on ourselves and have gone through the season unmotivated, but our coaches taught us to keep our heads high, and be proud of what we do; And most importantly, never to give up on ourselves or each other.

After a disappointing loss to region foe Brentwood, we pulled together and won three straight, culminating in a near-perfect game against Westfield. This victory was a major accomplishment for a small but scrappy bunch of Cavaliers. We were Region Champs - again.

We have enjoyed our years playing together for MDS. We give our special thanks to our coaches for the lessons they have taught us that have better prepared us to face the challenges of life. But most importantly, we thank our teammates, especially fellow seniors, for the experiences we shared and will never forget.

- Michael Garvin/Michael Taylor

Jarome splits the Windsor defense for an acrobatic layup.

Patrick hits an easy two in an early-season romp over the Knights.

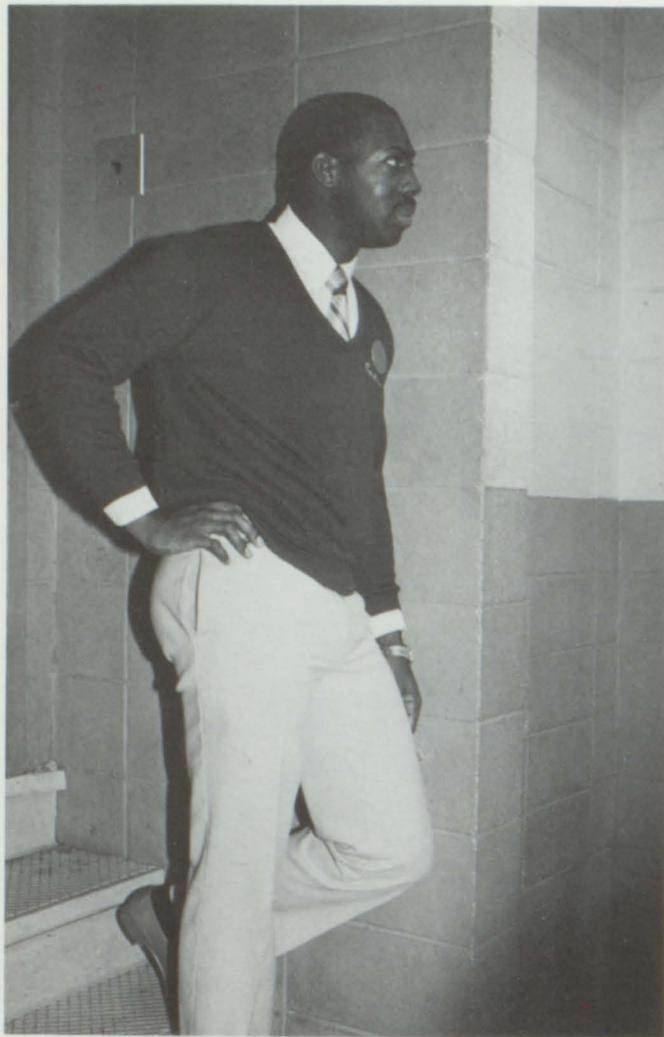

A familiar sight in McAuley Hall, and one that we'll all miss. Thanks, Chris, for three special seasons on the hardwood. →

1984-85 will always be remembered as the year in which the MDS boys' basketball team reached new heights, and set new standards of excellence.

The Cavaliers finished the regular season with a record of 25-2, easily the best in the SEAIS this season. Both of those losses came outside the Region, which the Cavs absolutely dominated from wire to wire.

It was a time of many talents and many styles. It was a coach's dream - five senior starters, two more seniors on a deep and talented bench. It was a team which could win with speed, suffocating defense, and power. The front line trio of Chris Slocum, Jarome Gautreaux, and Patrick Nuttal was superb at the inside game. It was the highest scoring team MDS has ever had, twice going over the 100-point mark, a rare accomplishment for a high school team.

For the first time in years, Mt. de Sales has a blue-chip athletic prospect. Chris Slocum signed a letter of intent in November to play for Jacksonville University, a Division I school in the Sun Belt Conference.

All things considered, the '84-'85 season served as conclusive proof that MDS boys basketball is excellence in motion.

Girls' Basketball - Reaching Higher

Sister Pat Coward's energetic coaching made its presence known in '84-'85. This time-out huddle occurred in the Lady Cavaliers' 17-point win over Brentwood.

1984-85 was challenging and difficult for 11 young women and their coach, Sister Pat Coward. Throughout the season, the Lady Cavaliers faced teams of greater talent and superior experience. Many of the girls played new positions, or found their roles on the team changed from the previous season. It produced many hard games, with few victories.

It is difficult to measure success in a season, like this one, which does not produce many victories. But there was success, revealed in small ways. A good defensive play; a key rebound, a successful fast break - these things were there from time to time, and they speak of growth and improvement among this group of hardworking, untiring young women.

In the words of St. Ignatius of Loyola:

Teach us, good Lord, to give and not to count the cost; to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest; to labor and not to ask for any reward — save that of knowing that we do thy Will.

Jolie swats away a Lady Viking jumper in the lane.

Baseball '84

During the 1984 season, the Cavaliers dominated the region for the third year in a row, finishing with an overall record of 18-5.

The team roared off to a 17-1 start, before running into a tough Tattnall team late in the season. The Cavaliers were eliminated in the state tournament, losing in the opening round to eventual state runner-up Calvary Baptist.

Gregg Fitzgibbons was named to the All-Region team.

The 1984 B-Team compiled a 2-6 record, while showing steady improvement throughout the season.

It may appear that Chris Kinnas is just standing around; he's probably employing his considerable skill at stealing the opponent's signs.

Softball - Another Region Title

Spring Sports

Our tennis teams had very successful 1984 seasons, as both our boys and girls teams won Region championships.

Laura Nelson won her third consecutive state singles championship, and was rewarded for her court excellence with a tennis scholarship to the University of Mississippi.

Our golf team also won the Region title in 1984, and finished fourth in the State Tournament.

Tripp Reid and Lee Gerdes tied for Low Medalist honors at the Region tourney, and Lee finished second in the state.

Track and Field

MDS Track and Field Records

Boys

Our boys track and field teams had a superior 1984 season. We finished first in the Region, and a very close second to state champion Southland at the state meet.

No less than 10 new school records were established during the 1984 season.

Pep Club

This year, MDS added a new dimension to its already legendary spirit, with the formation of the Pep Club.

Under the energetic leadership of Mrs. Brenda Timms, the Pep Club filled stadiums and gyms wherever the Cavaliers played. Our newspaper routine was widely copied, as were some of our cheers, but no one could imitate our spirit!

With almost 200 students participating, Pep Club said to the Cavaliers:

Cheerleaders

Pepe Shiflett, MDS Cheerleading captain, 1984-85.

A trio of our Windsor "country cousins" - Paige, Lassie and Marshea.

the last word

Each of those tiny grains of sand can be a symbol; a reminder of the multitude of events, which when woven together by the common experiences of friends, make up that elusive thing called life.

Think of your years here as an hourglass, and each grain of sand as a single event:

Your first report card,

Getting your braces removed,

Your first Mass.

Your last pep rally,

Your last exam,

Your last day.

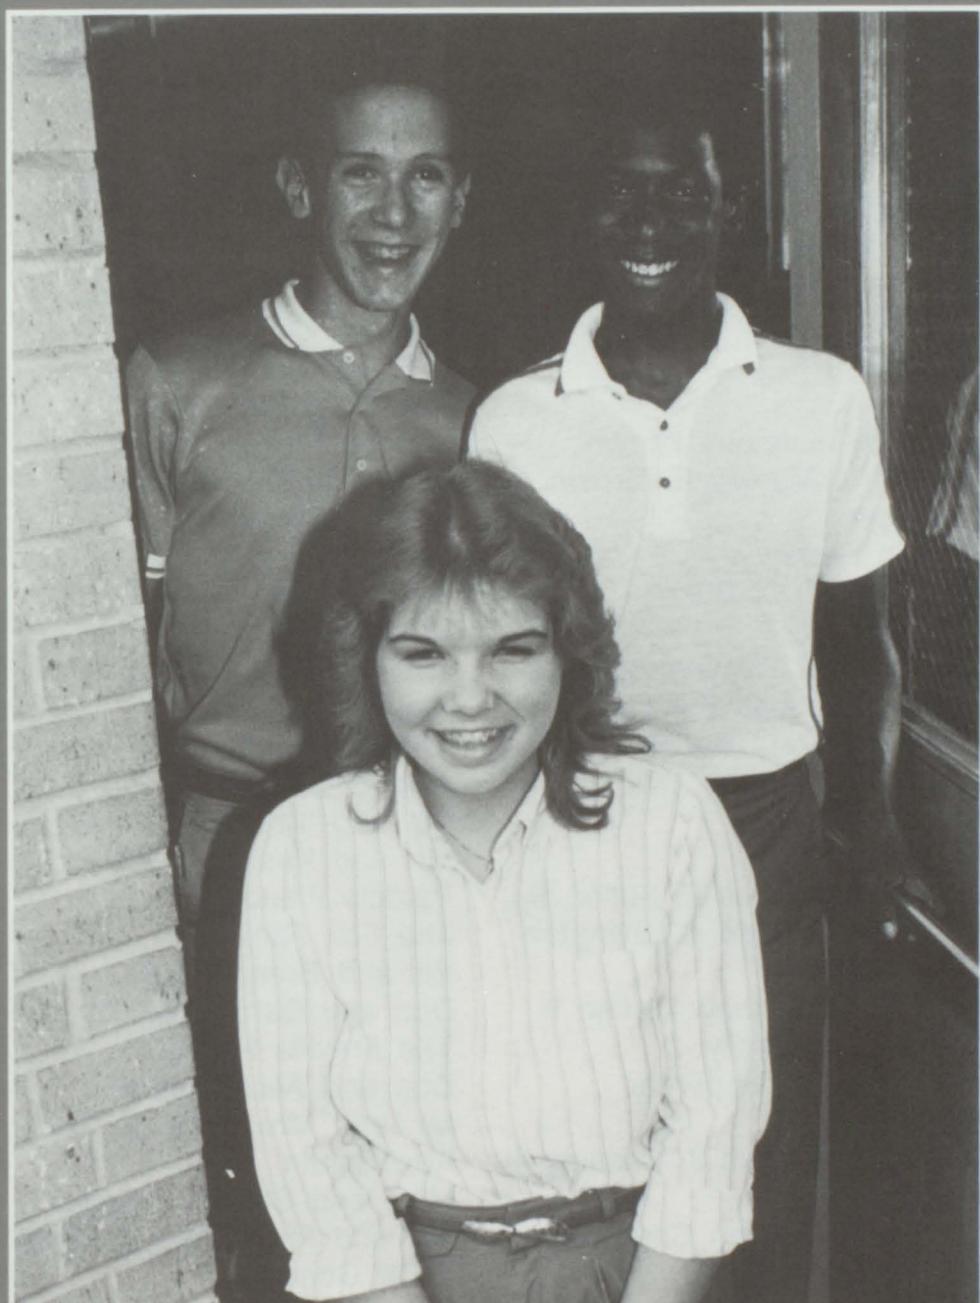

In the years ahead, you will turn over the hourglass many times, and it will be such a reflexive action that you might not even notice. But when you think back to the time when you turned it over to signal the beginning of life after high school, perhaps you'll remember the people who have helped to form you, and who love you still.

Chris R. Sheridan & Co. has been responsible for all of the renovations and beautification that occurred on the Mt. de Sales Campus in the last few years. They have also been, as these photos suggest, recognized for their fine work on other projects around the city of Macon. The Macon Hilton was pleased enough with the work performed by Chris R. Sheridan and Co. to devote a full-page in their re-opening brochure to them, as these photos and narrative demonstrate.

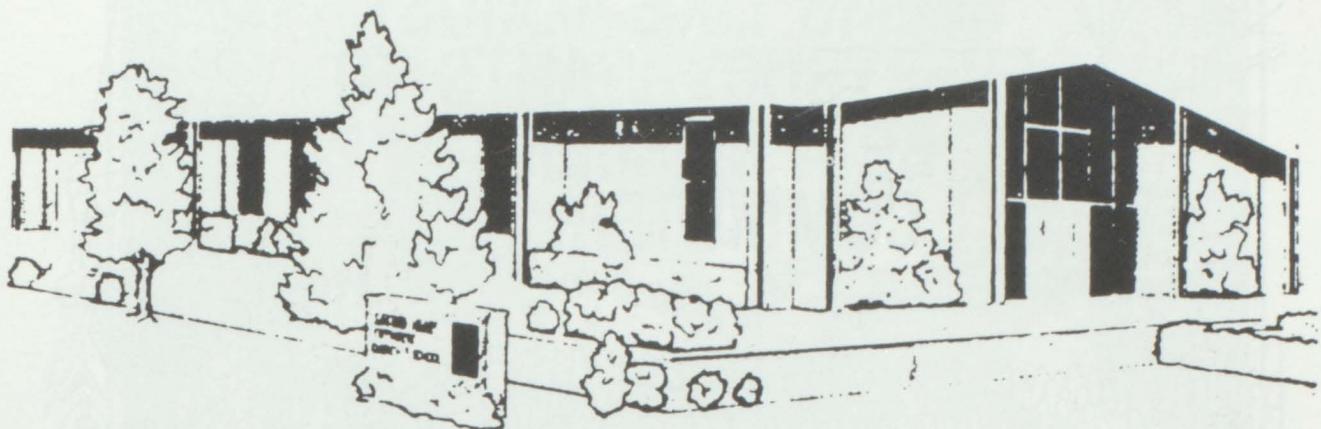

The fact is, Chris R. Sheridan & Co. is the most versatile and experienced general contracting firm in the Middle Georgia area. If you need construction of any kind, consider quality, integrity, cost effectiveness and reputation, and you can choose only one builder. Chris R. Sheridan & Co.

Chris R. Sheridan Co. Extraordinary General Contractor

The major renovation work accomplished by the Chris R. Sheridan Company has been praised on every level. Perhaps the finest tribute to this company comes from the subcontractors and suppliers who have all stated that this project was a pleasure to work on; and was accomplished with a contractor who demonstrated active concern and conscientious direction.

The Chris R. Sheridan Company is known for their major renovation work throughout the Southeast. Their expertise in coordinating and achieving the magnitude of requirements of the Macon Hilton wins respect for their profession.

SEEMS LIKE ALMOST EVERYBODY WANTS TO BE A MERCER COMMUTER...

SO THEY CAN GET THE WHOPPING 40% DISCOUNT!

A Great School at Great Savings. Mercer University has one of the country's fine liberal arts colleges. And an outstanding School of Business and Economics. Mercer offers pre-professional work in law, education, medicine, pharmacy, dentistry, forestry, medical technology, and theology.

High school graduates from Bibb, Houston, Jones, Twiggs, Peach, Crawford, and Monroe Counties automatically qualify for Mercer's Commuter Tuition. And save 22% off Mercer's regular tuition rate.

Plus State Grant. Area high school graduates also receive a $725 grant yearly from the State as Georgia residents attending a private institution. In all, area students can attend Mercer for 40% less in fees.

As a student living at home and commuting to Mercer, you save your family hundreds of dollars normally spent on long-distance travel, residence halls, cafeteria costs, and all the other "away to college" expenses.

Wonderful Wednesdays mean free time for you.
There are no regular classes on Wednesdays. You have time for study, off-campus projects, or a job.

Beat inflation with Commuter Tuition.

CONGRATULATIONS,

CLASS OF

Now the future awaits you . . . and you can make it what you want it to be. So set your sights on the career you want, work hard, and achieve your goals.

And, once college is over, for those of you who earn an engineering degree, you can build a great career with Emerson Electric Co. in Warner Robins, GA.

Emerson Electric Co. is actively involved in the defense industry doing vital work for the government. And because our job is to prepare for the future, we never stop innovating, pioneering, learning.

Neither will you.

We offer degreed professionals an excellent on-the-job training program, where you can work one-on-one with senior engineers in a climate that is professional, yet relaxed and informal. We provide in-house seminars and encourage self-motivation and the furthering of your education through our tuition reimbursement program. And each project on which you will work will be an education in specialized electronics.

So celebrate. You've earned it. Then hit those books, map those blueprints, and earn your engineering degree. And plan for a career at Emerson Electric Co.
